Applied to Life.™

Your path to certification

If you want to offer your patients an optimum treatment, practice aesthetic orthodontics at the highest level with the possibility of increasing your growth potential, then get certified now and secure your position in lingual orthodontics.

Two-day Incognito certification course

The certification course will make it easy for you to get started with the Incognito lingual bracket system. It will teach you everything you need to know on how to use the Incognito system. In addition, you will become familiar with the various materials used and there are typodont exercises for practical experience in various phases of lingual orthodontic treatment.

You will receive a certificate at the end of the course.
